TRIBUTE TO JOE STELL

● Mr. UDALL of New Mexico. Mr. President, if Joe Stell had only one career, he would still be worthy of our admiration.

If he had been only a hard-working and talented New Mexico educator who was loved by his students, he would deserve our respect. If he had only been a New Mexico State legislator who was admired by his colleagues and his constituents, he would deserve our thanks. And if he had been only a land and water steward, revered by the many ranchers he mentored on land management practices, he would deserve our admiration. Or had he been only a tireless advocate for restoring New Mexico grasslands and advancing partnerships to restore the land, he would deserve our gratitude.

But Joe Stell was all of these things: A no-nonsense public servant who asked tough questions, restored the landscape of New Mexico and changed the way government agencies and ranching communities work together to improve the land.

Former Representative Stell retired from the New Mexico Legislature after serving 20 years and being recognized as the preeminent legislative expert on water issues in New Mexico. Then-Governor Richardson referred to him as "Mr. Water." In his "retirement," he now runs a cattle ranch in Carlsbad, NM. It is on this ranch and the surrounding areas of southeastern New Mexico that he took part in Restore New Mexico, reseeding grasslands, bringing back its riparian areas and wildlife species and their habitats as part of the Healthy Lands Initiative.

Joe Stell has spent his life dedicated to public service, education, and land and water stewardship. He is proactive and constant in his efforts to improve rangelands; to communicate and coordinate between agencies and individuals and to leave the land in better shape than when he first came to it. For this lifetime of work, Joe Stell has been the recipient of various prestigious awards and honors, and today back in New Mexico he will be awarded the Bureau of Land Management's Rangeland Stewardship Award.

On behalf of the people of New Mexico, I would like to extend my sincere appreciation for Joe Stell's statesmanship and dedication to our State. Joe Stell's conservation work will always remind us that a commitment to the land and environment is powerful. For his more than 60 years of dedicated work in the public interest, I wish to honor Joe Stell.●

REMEMBERING BETTY ROBERTS

● Mr. WYDEN. Mr. President, today I wish to recognize someone whose name became synonymous with courage and equality, someone who in my State is every bit a pioneer as those who blazed the trails that opened the West.

Betty Roberts passed away recently at age 88, and while Oregon has lost one of its true giants, we have not lost the memory of what she gave to our State. Every time you turned around, Betty Roberts was pioneering. In the 1970s, she was the only woman serving in the Oregon State Senate. By 1977, she was the first woman to serve on the Oregon Court of Appeals and 5 years later she was the first woman on the Oregon Supreme Court.

I first met Betty in 1975 when she was one of the first elected officials in Oregon to give her full support to what was then a little known and burgeoning organization fighting for the rights of the elderly, the Gray Panthers. Over the nearly four decades of our friendship, I came to know and respect her as a tireless advocate for doing what was right based on facts and the truth.

Her road to prominence in Oregon's legal, legislative and political circles was not an easy one. As the Oregonian pointed out in its editorial, "Betty Roberts often heard the word 'no' during the first half of her life. No to finishing college, teaching or running for public office, and no to following her ambitions."

Anyone who knew Betty recognized that she did not take no for an answer. She went from being a teacher to earning a master's degree and a doctorate, all while raising a family. She went from being elected to a local school board to being elected to the Oregon House of Representatives and from there to the Oregon State Senate.

As a member of the legislature, she supported such pioneering Oregon laws as the bottle bill and land-use planning. What she will be most remembered for, however, is her unwavering commitment to equality for women and minorities. She knew firsthand the barriers women faced. She overcame them and dedicated her life to tearing down those barriers and giving other women the same opportunities she made for herself.

In her memoir titled "With Grit and by Grace," Betty wrote that she had "a reasonable desire to live the life I wanted."

We know now that Betty lived the life that she desired and my State and this Nation is better for it.●
